

Start your career as a Patient Care Representative

Enroll in our FREE training today!

Patient Care Representatives, under the direction of and in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, assist patients in identifying and utilizing resources that enhance the quality of care.

This entry-level role provides the opportunity for continued education in the fields of community health, social and human services, counseling, and even social work.

Patient Care Representatives coordinate communication among patients, family members, medical personnel, administrative personnel, and regulatory agencies to provide the patient with the appropriate resources.

Enroll today!

Click here to get started.

